IMPORTANT TO GARDENERS.—Large crops of cabbages are measurably destroyed every year, after they have nearly attained maturity, by the worm or caterpillar. Two years ago, a friend of ours in the country communicated to us what he pronounced a never-failing preventive. Sprinkle the cabbages with dry dust, or finely crumbled earth, which you may apply with your hands from between the rows. The best time to apply it is when the dew is on. Use it profusely; the cabbage will not be injured by it, as the first good rain that comes will wash it all out. We practiced this remedy last year with success. When we found a cabbage thickly infested with worms, we literally tickled every crevice with dry dirt.

Our youngest has fortunately been christened Mrs. Tyke given her dark and mysterious hints about naming somebody else one of those hair-brained pieces."

NOVEL FEAT WITH A GUN.—We see it stated in an English paper, that a man in the vicinity of London, undertook lately, for a bet of twenty-five dollars, to lay a gun upon the ground, throw a potato up, run heels over head, pick up the gun and hit the potato once out of five shots, before it fell to the ground. He afterwards actually performed this feat with

There is a good story told of old Moolah, the naive East Indian general. His followers stole from the English a lot of hermetically sealed provisions in tin cases, and, not having seen anything of the kind before, he mistook them for conister stone, and fired nothing from the guns for three days, but fresh lobsters, pickled salmon, and other delicacies, supplying the British camp with a shower of the freshest English provisions!

This incident reminds us of an old Dutch admiral, who in the progress of a elonged and sanguinary naval engagement, all at once found, to his great consternation, that his store of cannon balls was given out. All at once, however, he thought himself of a substitute for the dearth dealing iron. On board the Ship, among its stores, were some thousand or more of those round Dutch cheeses, just the size of a cannon ball. They were very old and as hard as brick-bats. There was an amusing dialogue on board the vessel engaged by the Dutch admiral: "What in the name of Mars is to be fired

Railroad Vote in Cumberland County.

For the State, Oct. 6, 1892.

Mr. J. M. McManus.

On Friday last, an election came off in this (Cumberland) county in relation to taxation to construct the Railroad from Danville, Ky., in the direction of McMinnville, Tennessee, which resulted as follows:

	For Tax.	Against.
Barksville,	131	31
Elkton,	53	31
Marrowbone,	35	39
Williams,	34	61
Lewisburg,	33	33
	256	253

Majority for the Tax, 23.

The citizens of this county have thus voted to tax themselves $10,000 per year for four years to effect the completion of the South-Western Railroad. The majority would have been much larger, if we could have had more time to inform the citizens properly as to the manner and effect of taxation.

As to Scott and Graham, it is almost a one-sided affair here. The Whigs are all life and energy. We will give an unusually large Whig majority. Some few Democrats will vote with us.

Yours, respectfully,

K.

Huzza for Casey!

A friend from Casey county informs us that the people of that county have voted for the Railroad Tax by a good majority. This is coming up to the work in good hard earnest.

SELECTED ITEMS.

—A large number of spurious gold dollars are said to be in circulation.

—On a Whig exchange come to us loaded with the most cheering account of the progress of the canvass.

—Gen. Bailey, a prominent Democrat of Marshall county, La., has declared for Gen. Scott.

—During the last week, 1,500 emigrants passed through Buffalo en route for the West.

—The earnings of the Cleveland and Columbus Railroad for September, will exceed $100,000.

—By telegraph we learn that Hon. George M. Tamm has accepted the State Rights nomination for the Presidency.

—The aggregate wealth of the United States amounts to $12,000,000,000, and the population is 24,000,000 souls.

—The number of cattle in Kentucky, as returned for taxation in 1891, was 750,000, valued at three millions of dollars.

—It is estimated that over $100,000 changed hands on the result of the city election in Cincinnati.

—Governor Meigs, of South Carolina, has appointed Friday, October 29th, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise.

—"Uncle Tom's Cabin," has been translated into German, and is now going the rounds of the German newspapers.

—At a meeting of the Chippewa Club at Frankfort on Saturday night last, seven Democrats were proposed and elected members.

—Livingston's Law Reporter says, there is no lawyer in the United States named John Smith. He lives at St. Albans, Vt.

—In 1856, at the time of the revolution, the population of Texas did not exceed 20,000 souls. It is now believed to be at least 550,000.

—A London letter says: "Kossuth and the Mazzini party here are very busy. There is evidently more breathing in this quarter than many bargine."

—The receipts of the American Colonization Society, during the month ending the 29th ult., were $4,203.47, of which $700 was in legacies.

—Seven vessels have sailed from New York and three from Boston for the Australian gold mines. The former took out 1,623 emigrants.

—Hon. W. T. Wadsworth made a splendid Whig speech at Lancaster, on Wednesday. The Argus of that place says that his review of the life of Gen. Scott was a masterly effort.

—Hon. E. A. Hannegan who killed his brother-in-law, in a drunken brawl, is now clear from all legal proceedings. The grand jury did not find an indictment.

—A London correspondent says: "In a few months France will again be an empire, and Louis Napoleon will be Emperor Napoleon II, unless he is assassinated."

—The county court of Marion county, in this State, have refused the citizens of the county the privilege of voting for or against the Railroad tax! This is something new and novel.

—The Boston Mail says Tom Corwin chews a pound of tobacco per day. It is related of him that his quids are so large that one of them once stopped the mail stage on the national road!

—Major James McManis, of Hopkineville, was found dead in his bed on the morning of the 11th inst. He was distinguished as a lawyer and as a politician, and possessed talents of a high order.

—By the latest papers we are glad to notice that the Californians are erecting mills, meeting-houses and school-houses. These are the most useful buildings in any country, and without them no country can be prosperous and happy.

—France—We find this floating among the walls of foreign news:

The first steps towards the establishment of an empire will be taken on the 15th of this month, at Tours, where a decree will be issued, reviving an extra session of the Senate, to consider the petitions in favor of an empire.

"A Hasty Plate of Soup."

On the Democratic report that Pierce should head an army to march upon the South, that "the must pass over his (Pierce's) dead body." Well, if a horse could pass over his live body, we don't see any difficulty in a man passing over his dead body.

We charge Gen. Scott with cowardice.

Pennsylvania.

We do not believe that any man, not a coward himself, would apply such language to Gen. Scott. We have no doubt that any man or boy would take the trouble to pass over his live body, the editor of the Pennsylvania, whenever he is from end to end of the longest street in Philadelphia.—Journal.

The Whig party and General Scott have been compelled to face the music.

Allegany record.

Gen. Scott has faced a sort of music. He has faced the martial music of his country's enemies, the shrill tones of the life, the deep roll of the drum, the loud blast of the trumpet, the thunder of the artillery, the fierce shout of the onset, and the sharp, quick clank of steel, and—never flinched.

Gen. Cars declared in the Senate, on Wednesday, that he was and always had been "in favor of any reasonable River and Harbor bill—the Chicago Convention and other and no confusion to the contrary, notwithstanding." What does he think of Gen. Pierce's position on the same subject?

During the six or eight years that Gen. Pierce has in the House of Representatives, he was so little thought of by his political friends that he was not placed at the head of any committee, and was never deemed of sufficient importance to be consulted either in the House or out of it. No man occupied a more insignificant position, or gave more conclusive evidence of being justly appreciated.

Not afraid!—Gen. Pierce showed so little fear of the Mexicans, at the battle of Chancellorsville, that he lay down and went to sleep in the very next field to them.

Dr. Ad.

The first Scott and Graham flag in this city was unfurled yesterday from Winch's shirt manufactory, by the employees of that establishment, who almost to a man go for the brave old General.

New Haven Courier.

The employees of that establishment, says the New Haven Register, are "almost to a man" confounded good looking girls.

Alb. Atlas.

Just as we would have it. You never catch "good-looking girls" siding with the Pierce party.

Pierce Campaign Paper.—The London (British) Times will be published as a Pierce Campaign paper until the election in November. Hurry up your subscription!

The Pennsylvania says that General Pierce comes from New Hampshire. If he comes from there, he must come of his own accord; he will never leave the State by the invitation of the people of the country.

Gen. Pierce himself, in the canvass of 1844, set an example by which he would be entitled to very high charity at the hands of his opponents. During that year, in a public speech at Nashua, New Hampshire, as we are credibly informed, he charged Mr. Clay with being "guilty of every crime from card playing to the murder of Colley."

Rich. Whig.

And this same Gen. Pierce, who charged Mr. Clay in his life-time with being "guilty of every crime from card playing to murder," delivered an oration after his death, lamenting him as one of the purest and best men on earth.

Some men have the disposition of dogs that will tear you in pieces and then crutch and howl dolefully over your dead body.

Low Jour.

MODESTY.—Gen. Pierce has declined more high positions than any man in the United States.

Milwaukee Ex.

The head of his own brigade in battle among the rest!—Ex.

The London Times, a short time ago, wanted to have Mitchell, O'Brien and Meagher, "hung and quartered." It now wants Pierce elected President of the United States.

Son of Douglass says there "are not Whigs enough on the prairies of the West to make men stones."

Truly not, if they were set up by the way side of the road he is traveling to reach the Presidency.

Chicago Jour.

THE TRUTH AT LAST.—The Louisville Democrat of October 6th, says:

The natives, the Irish, the Germans, are all going for Scott, and the Whigs are gathering in their strength to do something striking in November next.

DEAD LETTERS.—During the last quarter one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one letters were returned to the Dead Letter Office, in the Post Office Department. These contained $10,669, in the aggregate. Recently, about one million and a third of such letters were publicly destroyed, a bonfire being kindled with them on the Mall. We, yesterday, saw a large number of the various articles transmitted through the mails, the majority of which will never come to the possession of those to whom they were addressed. Among these may be mentioned a horse-shoe; a ginger-bake, the postage on which was $2.10; an advertisement to a church, being a small cake in a paper box, a quilt, a New Year's present; a bachelor; a Dutch pattern for a child's dress; a pin-cushion, the stand of it the bottom of a glass lamp, the postage $4, the intrinsic worth as many cents; a zinc frame belonging to a galvanic battery; postage $17; a stone weighing two pounds addressed to a gentleman by "E. J. A." as a sample of his generosity; a pair of men's boots sent to a lady; a large bottle of salve; and a bundle containing a coarse shirt, a pair of blue stockings and a razor.—Washington Republic, 9th.

Oh! Cerro Gordo on the track,

With men erect and fierce,

While frightened Locos, looking back,

Exclaim, alas for Pierce!

But still our hero pushes on;

The race is getting hot;

While Pierce and King in anguish groan,

Then clear the track for Scott!

Compare the Two.

READ AND PONDER!

The present Presidential canvass is peculiarly a contest between merit and demerit. A trial is to be made between the opposing forces of obscurity and renown—a trial whether do-nothing is stronger than do everything—whether passive existence is more worthy of reward than active merit. Which of the two deserves support? We place the candidates and their claims in comparison:

GENERAL SCOTT.

Captain of light artillery, 1808.

Returns home, May, 1848.

Is received by the corporation of New York with military and civic honors, May, 1848.

Nominated by the Whig National Convention, for the Presidency, June 21, 1852.

FRANKLIN PIERCE.

Born at Concord, New Hampshire, 1795.

Elected deputy sheriff of the town of Concord, 1820.

December, 1833, went to Congress.

1836, voted against a bill to continue the Cumberland road through the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

January, 1837, voted against the right of petition.

February, 1837, voted against appropriations for the improvement of harbors, rivers and roads.

December, 1837, went to the Senate.

Voted and spoke against a bill for the relief of the Widow of President Harrison.

Voted against a bill for the relief of the heirs of Robert Fulton.

Voted against the Fortification bill, in a minority of four.

Voted against granting pensions to the Widows of Revolutionary Soldiers, and to the old Indian fighters.

After thus voting "NAV," on so many important and patriotic measures, went home again, March 1842.

March, 1847, appointed a Brigadier General by President Polk.

June, 1847, ordered Col. Ransom to charge a chaparral on the Vera Cruz road, "where the enemy were supposed to be," which was gallantly executed, though the enemy turned out not to be there.

August 19, 1847, fell from his horse on the hard-fought field of Contreras.

August 21, was as well as usual.

September 15, 1847, did not take the city of Mexico.

May, 1848, came home safe.

March, 1851, the religious test was voted upon in New Hampshire, and through the efforts of the Democracy, retained.

General Pierce's comely gave a larger majority in its favor than any other in the State.

June 6, 1852, was "astonished at the audacity that he was nominated for President."

June 6, 1852, so was everybody else.

July, 1852, in company with two gentlemen from the South, met a "fellow" "out at the elbows," and "shook hands with him, just as if he was equal in station to himself."!!!

Now compare the lives of the two men!

We copy the following from the Louisville Courier, of Monday:

"Ex Gov. Letcher came down on the mail boat Saturday as far as Carrollton where he took the Cincinnati packet for Frankfort. He says both New York and Pennsylvania are as sure for Scott as that the election will take place."

REMEMBER,
That the Presidential election is to be held on Tuesday, the second day of November, and continues but a single day. The polls open at six o'clock in the morning and close at seven in the evening.

WHIGS ARE YOU READY?—The election is now but about ten days distant. Whigs, are you ready for it? If not, get so. There is no time to lose, and you should not rely on your majority in the State, as a reason for inactivity on the part of any true Whig. The present is no time for lagging. Do your duty—wake your inactive Whig neighbors, if you have any such—and assist in organizing the party in your respective counties thoroughly. This done, the next important business is, for each Whig to cast his vote at the polls—and, for the sake of the party, and our cherished principles, let every Whig do this, though he does it at the sacrifice of a little convenience. Let there be no holding back, but let every man do his full duty, and Kentucky will roll up a Whig majority equal to that of 1840.

The Whig Mass Meeting.

Every Whig in the county should arrange his business so as to enable him to be at the Whig meeting at Caldwell's meeting-house, on Monday next. Let it be a gathering of the masses from this whole section of country, and thus show to our friends abroad and our enemies at home, that we are ready for the great battle, which now is but a little more than a week distant. Comfortable seats will be prepared for the ladies, large numbers of whom are expected to honor the meeting with their presence. In addition to the venerable Ex-Governor METCALF, Hon. R. P. LETCHER, and Hon. C. S. MOREHEAD, who will certainly be present, it is confidently expected that other distinguished speakers will be there also. So there will be no lack of good speaking.

Our Democratic friends are cordially invited to attend, and hear the truth well told.

The following gentlemen have been appointed a Committee of Arrangements for the Mass Meeting on Monday next: W. L. Tarkington, W. H. F. Lightfoot, W. L. Caldwell, John Henderson, David A. Knox, Thos. C. Caldwell, Mat. Snick, A. D. Irvine, Geo. F. Lee, A. D. Meyer, Jas. Brumfield, M. G. Purdum.

And the following have been selected as Marshals of the day: Col. G. W. Donaghy, Chas. Ridgway, Garret Clarkson, Henry Gray, J. B. H. Latimer, W. F. Webb.

MR. WARD'S SPEECH.—Hon. W. T. Ward, the efficient Whig representative in Congress from this district, addressed quite a large number of his fellow-citizens at the Court House in this place, on Saturday last. His speech recommended itself as being replete with good sense and sound argument. His comparison of the merits of Gen. Scott with the demerits of Gen. Pierce, was as truthful as it was unpleasant to Democratic ears. Altogether Mr. Ward's speeches are such as are calculated to do much good in the Whig cause, and we are glad to see him engaging in the canvass with so much zeal.

Hon. J. F. BELL is doing good service in the Green River country. He has immense crowds to hear him, and the Whigs everywhere regard him as one of the first orators in the State.

NEW CIGAR STORE.—See the advertisement of Mr. SCHALKENBACH, who has just opened a choice lot of Cigars, Chewing Tobacco, &c.

NEW YORK SEEK FOR SCOTT!—The New York Courier and Enquirer, the Express and papers from all parts of the State, say that the State will, without any doubt, vote for Scott by at least 20,000 majority.

THE WHIG CAUSE.

The prospect of success to the Whig party in the coming election is as bright as ever, and we have an abiding confidence that Winfield Scott will be most triumphantly elected. In every quarter the signs of the times are of the most cheering character. The recent local elections in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania give no cause of alarm, nor should they. The accounts from those States show plainly that Scott will beyond all doubt easily carry them all, with perhaps the exception of Indiana. Give no heed to Democratic crowing. They only boast to keep their own courage up. But let the Whigs be up and doing during the few days yet preceding the election, and we'll send the Loco-focos farther up Salt River than we did in 1840.

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUDS.—Our Whig friends should look out from this time until the election, for the "last cards" of the Loco-focos. Reports of immense majorities, tremendous "re-actions," slanders on our candidates, &c., &c., may be expected, and if they do not show themselves, it will be a sign of fairness never before known to Democratic wire-workers.

The Webster organization in North Carolina has been dissolved.

A NEW WORK.—"THE CABIN AND PARLOR; OR STAVES AND MASTERS."—By J. THIBERTON RANDOLPH.—We are indebted to the publisher, T. B. Peterson, Philadelphia, for a copy of a book just published, bearing the above title. It is not intended as a companion or response to "Uncle Tom's Cabin." "Aunt Phillis's Cabin," nor anybody else's cabin, but takes high ground for the Constitution, and gives a TRUTHFUL picture of the people as they are—the Northern lord and his vassals—the Southern master and his slaves—and the duties of both North and South—being a book for the whole country, knowing no particular section thereof. It is emphatically a book for the times, and is more interesting, truthful, and deserving of favor than any of the kind we have yet read. It is complete in one volume of 336 pages, and will be sent by mail, free of postage, at 50 cents per copy, bound in paper, or $1.00 bound in muslin.

During the prevalence of the cholera at Buffalo, N. Y., there were 851 deaths by it, of which 432 were in the month of September. The total number of deaths by all diseases during the three months the cholera prevailed was 1,473.

COMMERCIAL BANK OF KENTUCKY.

The amount of capital stock required by the charter of this Institution to authorize it to commence banking operations having been paid in, Gov. Powell, in accordance with the provisions of the charter of said bank, has issued his proclamation authorizing said bank to commence business as a banking institution.

"PLOUGH, LOOM AND ANVIL."—This valuable monthly, the very best agricultural work in the country, is a regular visitor to our sanctum. Every farmer should subscribe for it, and we warrant that none will regret it. The friends it made while in the hands of the Senior Skinner, have no cause to be less friendly to it since it has passed into the hands of the Junior, who has the most able and experienced assistants. Published at New York, at $5, per annum, in advance.

According to the San Francisco Pricer Current, the gold shipped from San Francisco for eight months of the present year, amounted to $27,063,118—averaging $3,382,899 per month, or at the rate of $40,594,680 for the year.

The Providence Journal very aptly asks, "if the speeches of General Scott prove him to be so very weak, and are doing him so much injury, why don't the Democratic papers copy them?"

CRIMINAL STATISTICS.—In New York city from January to July 16,421 persons were arrested. 87 were for assault with intent to kill, 2,205 for assault and battery, 89 for assaulting policemen, 236 for street-fighting, 13 for murder, 31 for rape, 7 for attempt at rape, 43 for heavy robberies, and 8,250 for disorderly conduct. About nine-tenths of these arrests are the undeniable offspring of rum-drinking.

LINCOLN COUNTY.—A correspondent of the Commonwealth, says: "I know of at least a dozen Democrats who will vote for Scott. The full strength of our party will be polled, and Scott's majority in Lincoln will not fall below 350 and may reach 400."

A letter from California says: a man from Illinois has just arrived from Independence having driven the entire distance two thousand turkeys, all hale and hearty. They cost him fifty cents apiece in the States, and the cost of feeding them on the way was nothing; they fed themselves. He has received eight dollars apiece.

The Concord Democrat, published at the home of Pierce, insists that he is insane, and thinks that the best possible proof of the fact is the General's denial of the New Boston speech.

THE RECENT ELECTIONS.

The reported results of the late elections in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana caused quite a deal of crowing among our Democratic friends last week, but as the official returns come in, we find that everything looks just as favorable to the Whigs as any reasonable man expected. The full returns are not yet in, but none have yet been received that should give Whigs any alarm.

OHIO O. K!

Cass received a majority in Ohio of 16,414, and the Democratic candidate for Governor last year had a majority of over 26,000. Now, the result is quite different. The Whigs have gained largely in nearly every county. In Hamilton county, for instance, which gave 3,773 Democratic majority last year, a Whig Sheriff has been elected by 600 majority, and the Democratic candidate for Congress received a majority of only 300. It is reasonably believed that the Democratic majority on the State ticket will not exceed eight or ten thousand, and on the Congressional vote, not more than five thousand.

Since the above was in type, we have the following telegraphic news in the Louisville Journal:

Here is glorious news for the Whigs! It was specially telegraphed for the Louisville Journal.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 16, 11 P. M.

FIFTY-FIVE COUNTIES ARE IN THE WHIG GAIN IN THEM IS OVER TEN THOUSAND!

In regard to the way Ohio will vote in the Presidential election, the Cincinnati Gazette, (the leading and most reliable paper in the State) says:

"OHIO IS FOR SCOTT.—We think it is now settled—a fact—that the 23 votes of Ohio will be given to Gen. Scott. This strength is greater in the State—much greater—than that of our State ticket at the late election. All who voted the Whig ticket at our general election, will vote for Scott electors, and many that voted against us at the recent election will vote with us for Scott and Graham. Our friends in Ohio know, and our friends elsewhere may rest assured, that Ohio is for Scott and Graham, for the Union, for internal improvements, for protection to our own labor, for peace, and the prosperity and happiness of the people."

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Democrats have elected their candidates for Supreme Judge and Canal Commissioner in Pennsylvania, but national politics had but little to do in producing these results, as the vote of many of the counties clearly prove. Philadelphia city and county, for instance, gave both Whig and Democratic majorities for different offices. The majority of the Democrats in the State is between ten and twelve thousand. The Whigs have gained one or two Congressmen, and carried the State Senate. Set Pennsylvania down as certain for Scott, who is everywhere much stronger than any local candidate. She voted against the Whigs in the local elections of '48, and still Taylor received 13,500 majority.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 16, P. M.

The Whig loss in Philadelphia and Alleghany counties is 3,500, owing to local causes in Alleghany, and the natives voting for Democrats in Philadelphia. As far as official returns are received from other counties, there are small Whig gains. Small vote cast—State certain for Scott.

INDIANA.

Without going into details of the returns of counties as furnished by telegraph, it may be briefly stated that the returns indicate the election of Wright, the Democratic candidate for Governor, by 10,000 to 15,000 majority.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 7.

LITTLE DELAWARE GLORIOUSLY ELECT.—The whole State has been heard from as regards the Presidential election, and the Whigs have carried every county in the State. The result is a decided one. No such event has happened since 1840. The Democrats, who professed confidence, have experienced an overwhelming defeat. This is the first gain from the Middle States, and a precursor of what is to follow in other sections of the Union.

FLORIDA.

A despatch from Baltimore dated the 19th, says: "Mr. Cabell is at Richmond, and says he has sufficient returns from Florida to satisfy himself of his election to Congress, and Ward's (Whig) election for Governor."

We will publish the list of Congressmen elected in Pennsylvania and Ohio as soon as we receive it in full.

A Lie!—The weekly Louisville Democrat papers came to this place on Wednesday last, containing in large letters the announcement that Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania had each given 20,000 majority for the Democrats. This is a lie—a lie in import—a lie in substance—a lie in toto—and a lie altogether unworthy respectable editors.

Hogs.—The Louisville Courier of Tuesday last, says:

Hogs are quiet, and we hear of no sales in addition to those quoted a few days since. About 10,000 head have been offered at $5, from the hocks, but not taken. The impression prevails that the number of hogs this season will be fully equal to the last, and speculators and buyers assert that the crop throughout the West will be the largest ever known.

The Hon. ARCHIE DIXON has recovered, although he is still feeble. We understand that during his recent illness he made a profession of religion, and attached himself to the Presbyterian Church.

"MUM" IS THE WORD.—Two weeks ago, we requested our neighbor to point out a single act, or speech of Gen. Pierce, which evinces statesmanship, and to tell us whether the said General (?) was ever more than three hours on any one battlefield. We also desired him to point out a single principle for which his party is contending in the present canvass. To those questions, as we expected, knowing his inability to answer them, to the benefit of his party, he is very wisely "mum." By his silence acknowledging the deficiency of his cause, and the unworthiness of his candidate. Gen. Pierce is not on the record, to his advantage, and our neighbor knows it.

PENNSYLVANIA ALL SAFE.

Our exchanges from Pennsylvania all speak encouragingly of the Whig prospects in that State. The Philadelphia North American says:

THE STATE ELECTION.—The result of the election in this State, on Tuesday, though very different from what we could have wished, has neither surprised nor alarmed us, nor, so far as our observation extends, has it in any degree disheartened our party. To friends at a distance who have sought our opinions we have invariably said that, while the vote of Pennsylvania was certain for Scott, there was great danger that we might be defeated in the October election, and that by a very considerable majority.

We have not the slightest doubt that the twenty-seven electoral votes of Pennsylvania will be given to General Scott. Tens of thousands of Whigs who would not lose the time nor incur the trouble necessary to reach the polls when merely local, and as they unwisely consider them, unimportant, issues were at stake, will mingle actively in the Presidential contest; and hundreds upon hundreds of Democrats, who, on Tuesday, voted with their own party, will cast their ballots for the gallant old veteran whose name now shines so conspicuously in his country's history and whose fame will hereafter be among its priceless inheritances. There is scarcely a man who cannot find within the sphere of his observation one or more Democrats who have avowed their determination to go for Scott; and there are much larger numbers that intend to go for him, who do not choose openly to declare their purpose.

The turn out in this State in November will be greater than any we have heretofore had. The causes which, on Tuesday, led to different result will no longer exist, and the Whigs will be found marching in solid and unbroken columns to the achievement of a brilliant victory.

At this moment, while returns are coming to us from different parts of the State, showing that our friends have been careless as to the result of Tuesday's election, assurances reach us from all quarters that in the great fight which is approaching we may look for an earnestness, a spirit, an enthusiasm which have not been paralleled. Here in our own vicinity, the friends of Scott were never more confident of carrying this State than they are now.

Our neighbor of the Ploughboy seems to be prostituting his columns to a very dirty purpose. His last number contains a lengthy account of the Whig mass meeting held at that place, and the excellent speech of Col. Williams delivered at that meeting, the first of which he denounces "a miserable failure," and the second as contemptible, absurd, slanderous, &c. Now, we happened to be at that meeting ourselves, and know that the whole account of it as written by our neighbor is a connected chain of misrepresentation, too plain to require correction, and evincing too much of party trucking and political meanness, to be worthy of notice.

Betting on Elections.

The following article which we take from the correspondence of the Washington Republic, shows the practice of betting on elections, aside from the immorality of the practice, in about its true light, so far as regards the policy of the Democrats, in being so anxious just now to secure bets:

The Democrats are evidently frightened. They are becoming perfectly desperate. No better evidence of this fact is wanted than the perfect recklessness with which they engage in betting. It is with them a magnificent game of brag. Extensive betting is their best party capital, and indeed with many of them it operates as a precursor of their ultimate success.

See how at almost a preconcerted signal bets are gotten up in all sections of the country to stimulate party zeal and infuse courage and heart into an otherwise lifeless mass. Imagining they know of no possible way of investing money to better purpose than in betting on their ultimate triumph. The party itself, made up of flashy filibustering and bravado, can be rallied in no surer way than by these base pecuniary challenges. It arouses the peculiar clannishness of the party, and it dupes the green outsiders just enough to bring them over to what they think will be the strongest party. The Democrats cannot invest money in this campaign to better advantage. It is not so with the Whigs. They are willing to leave the decision with the people on the merits of their candidate. They have no fellowship with the desperate game of brag. They do not expect to accomplish anything by these means in their own party. And as for gaining over any Loco by so doing, it would be utterly impossible, since the Democratic party cannot be outdone in the business of being. Hence it is for the interest of the Whigs not to encourage it, for it is the most powerful engine of the opposition just at this present time, and let it be borne in mind that it cannot be worked but through Whig co-operation. They have nothing to work on if the privilege of betting is denied them. Let the Whigs then mind no challenges, but work while it is day; work to set the country right, and place our country's best hero in the chair of State, once honored by other heroes to whom we were not ungrateful—a Washington, a Harrison and a Jackson.

Some facts are stated by the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, that are particularly interesting and highly encouraging to the great Whig party at this time. In 1843, Gen. Taylor was elected President. That year the Whigs chose four members of Congress and the Democrats fourteen in the States of Missouri, Iowa, Vermont, and Maine. This year the Whigs have chosen nine members of Congress and the Democrats eight in these four States. In 1843 the Democrats had a majority of ten Representatives; in 1852 the Whigs have a majority of one.

A Webster meeting was held at Faneuil Hall in Boston on the evening of the 6th. The Boston Atlas says that the Hall was about half full, that the speech of Mr. Curtis was coldly received, and that, at the close of the meeting, "rousing cheers were given for Gen. Scott."

The Old Fellows had a grand procession on Thursday last in the city of Louisville. The procession numbered over six hundred. An oration was delivered by Dr. Raphael, and a sumptuous dinner was served at the Farmer's Warehouse.

The Charlottesville (Va.) Advocate says that two pamphlets bearing the frank of Mr. Powell, have been received in that place, one of which represents Gen. Scott as a Catholic, while the other holds him up as a bitter opponent of the Catholics.

CALIFORNIA.—The New York Tribune says—"The nomination of General Scott is received with enthusiasm in all parts of the Golden State, and the Whigs have engaged in the canvass with great energy and confidence of success."

ELECTION LAWS.

That all persons interested may be properly advised, we publish some extracts from the election laws. The election laws in this State are very stringent, and should be well understood:

Penalties against Frauds on Elections.

"Any citizen of this State who shall vote in any precinct without having been a resident thereof for sixty days next preceding the election, or who shall vote twice at the same election, shall be fined at the discretion of a jury, not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars; and on failing to pay the fine and costs, may be imprisoned in the county jail until the fine and costs are paid: Provided, That he shall not be imprisoned for a longer time than three months."

"Any non-resident of this Commonwealth who shall vote in this State, shall be subject to confinement in the penitentiary, for not less than one nor more than three years."

"Whoever shall vote in the State before having resided in the same two years, or in the county, town or city where the vote is given, one year, also in the precinct where the vote is given sixty days next preceding the election, or before being of the age of twenty-one years, shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars; and on failing to pay the fine and costs, shall be imprisoned in the county jail thirty days."

[Sess. acts, 1850 51, p. 96-97.]

For Liberia.

The emigrants going from Kentucky, (unless otherwise specially directed,) will meet in Louisville, on Monday, the 13th day of December, 1852, to embark for New Orleans, whence the vessel will sail on the 20th of December, for Liberia. Emigrants will inquire for Rev. A. M. Cowan, Agent of Kentucky Colonization Society, at Cassidy & Hopkins, Main street Louisville.

DIED.—Near this place, on the 15th inst., after an illness of about one year, of Consumption, Mr. BENJAMIN F. STOUT, aged about 21 years. Toss has fallen, when just entering manhood, one of the most estimable and worthy young men of our community. He was beloved and respected by all who knew him, for his piety, intelligence, and integrity, and though his career of usefulness was short, it may be truly said of him that he has "left his mark behind him."
